Superintendent Steve Barrett addressed the board members in August at his first regular meeting.

“It’s been a whirlwind two weeks here in Gahanna,” Superintendent Barrett said. “I’ve had a lot of fun. I’m very impressed and very excited to begin the school year.”

Superintendent Barrett noted that the Board of Education has moved to add board committees to their structure after a recent Board of Education retreat. The board committees will consist of 3 board members focusing on the following topics: finance, student learning and achievement, and policy and governance. Each board committee will meet monthly. The three additional board meetings will be open to the public, and will affect how the members of the Board of Education structure their work together and communicate with each other, as well as the community.
